Regarding Announcement of Examination Results

The International Management Course (IMC), Business School have announced the examination results for Pattern B, 2027 Spring Entry via TAO on November 13, 2026.

Applicants should be notified of their results via email, as stated in Entrance Examination Information. However, due to a worldwide Microsoft outage, we are unable to send the exam result emails to all applicants on the scheduled announcement date (Nov. 13).

Therefore, we have sent the result announcement via the TAO messaging function.

To those who have passed our exam: Please read the “Information for Successful Applicants” carefully and complete the Admission Procedures by the specified deadline.

If you have any questions or comments, please use TAO message function to contact us instead of email.

We apologize for any inconvenience this may have caused.
Thank you for your cooperation and understanding.
